Dr. James Klim -- Master CEREC Trainer
www.cadstar.org

"CEREC allows me to have complete control over my demands for cosmetic dentistry. Utilizing key principles for smile design, you can predictably translate these into a finished product that your patients will be dazzled by."

Dr. Paul Homoly -- Practice Development Coach www.paulhomoly.com

"The challenge in esthetic dentistry is no longer in the limitations of the dental materials; it's in understanding how to enhance profitability and reduce stress as you evolve your practice into a modern-day and efficient system."

Dr. Todd Ehrlich -- Master CEREC Trainer
www.cerecology.com

"The release of CEREC 4.0 has expanded the scope and ease of delivering multiple units. We will focus on efficiency guidelines and strategies for multiple units with the best ceramics in dentistry."
